Notice Regarding Second Spot Counselling for UG Courses Against Vacant Seats

Following information is shared for conducting the second round of spot counselling.

1. The Second Spot counselling is to be organised in respective departments itself.Data of applications of second round of spot counselling can be accessed through SAMARTH Portal login of HODs.
2. Applicants who were selected in Phase-I & Phase-II online counselling but failed to pay the admission fee are also eligible to attend the spot counselling-II.
3. Applicants who missed spot counselling-I are also eligible forspot counselling-II.
4. Due to increase in intake of B.Com (Hon.) programme, an opportunity to all the candidates is being provided who has registered with BBAU Samarthportal for admission through CUET for session 2026-27 during the admission registration window, but didn't attend first spot counselling considering less number of vacant seats.Therefore, during second spot counselling for all the departments, an extended session of first spot counselling is organised where aforementioned candidates shall come and register. These applicants will be clubbed with first spot counselling applicants and a common merit will be prepared for vacant seats available on the date when extended session of first spot counselling is organised. Additionally, second spot counselling will also be conducted simultaneously where unregistered and Non CUET candidates can report.
   However, it is made clear that, candidates registered in second spot counselling will only be considered when first spot round (inclusive of extended session registration) is fully exhausted including waiting list.The dates of extended session of first spot counselling and second spot counselling are as follows:08/09/2026 10:00 A.M. onwards till 6.00 P.M.
5. Even after organising second spot counselling, admission through it should only be offered if any seats are left vacant after exhausting the complete waiting list from first round of spot counselling for admission to UG programmes for session 2026-27.
6. Admission in any programme should strictly adhere to the merit list and preference should be given to CUET applicants over Non-CUET applicants, if they have appeared for relevant subject codes as mentioned under eligibility in seat matrix of various programmes in the UG prospectus for session 2026-27.

Further, it is the responsibility of Head/Co-Ordinator and concerned DAC to ensure adherence to merit while offering admission to applicants of second round of spot counselling.
