Notice for Transfer cases for Admission on vacant seats Session -2026-27

Already registered candidates who are in waiting list in various programmes of University where all seats are full and they are willing to take admission in some other programmes where vacant seats are available after all the rounds of counselling are completed, shall be given an opportunity for transfer to these programmes, provided they fulfil the eligibility requirements of programme where they seek transfer.

The transfer of such applicants shall be done by Education Technology Cell (ETC) on recommendation of the two HoDs specifying that seats are vacant in relevant category and there exist no waiting list after all rounds of counselling. The receiving department must ensure to propose & follow the merit list in case the numbers of transfer applications are more than the number of vacant seats. While accommodating the transfer cases the extant reservation policy shall be adhered. Such applications will be forwarded to Education Technology Cell (ETC) by Head of the receiving departments to transfer the application in SAMARTH Portal. The transfer will also be permitted for paid seats in similar manner.

This is issued with the approval of Competent Authority.
