Summary of SKIT/Nukkad Natak Competition (IC Awareness Program, 2nd February 2026)

The Internal Complaints Committee (IC) of Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Lucknow, organized a Skit/Nukkad Natak Competition on 2nd February 2026. The objective of the event was to spread awareness against harassment at workplace. The theme of the event was "Harassment Ends Where Awareness Begins." The event aimed to sensitize students and faculty about respectful behavior and the significance of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in creating a safe and inclusive environment.

The program was graced by faculty members, supporting staff, students and participants. ICC members put forward the essentials of ICC and its functioning. Several teams of students from different departments participated in the competitive skit segment, presenting impactful performances that addressed issues of harassment, awareness, and empowerment through creative nukkad natak (street play). The event was further enriched by poems and musical performances by esteemed faculty members along with an interactive workshop that provided practical insights into prevention and redressal mechanisms. Senior faculty members, ICC members shared their valuable thoughts, emphasizing the role of awareness, responsibility, and institutional support in addressing harassment.

The judges' panel unanimously declared team Bekhauf as the winner of the competition. The first runner-up position was secured by the team led by Arpita Awasthi, while team Adamya was the second runner-up.

Overall, the program successfully created awareness, encouraged dialogue, and reinforced the importance of speaking up against harassment through playful skits by students and self creations (melodious poems) of the faculty and non-teaching staff of BBAU.
