BBAU holds contests to choose gender champs

PRO

Lucknow (PNS): The Gender Champions Committee of BBAU organised competitions to select gender champions for the current session. BBAU spokesperson Dr Rachna Gangwar said that gender champions are being selected on the basis of guidelines issued by the UGC, Ministry of Education and Ministry of Women and Child Development under the guidance of Vice-Chancellor Sanjay Singh.

“A three-stage process was adopted for selection. Extempore competition in the first phase, essay writing competition in the second phase and interview in the third phase was conducted in offline as well as online modes. Through the three-stage phase, the students’ oral communication skills, writing and leadership abilities were tested,” she said. She added that students from various departments of the university participated in the selection process.

Chairperson of the committee Prof Shilpi Verma said that the gender champion does the work of creating a gender-sensitive environment on the university campus.

“One male student and one female student will be selected and results of the competitions will be declared soon,” she said.
