

Department of Information Technology

Programme Out Come

M.Sc. IT- The programme mainly focuses on preparing the students for serving IT industry. This programme not only focuses on training of students in the major areas of Information Technology but also it trains the students on how to apply this knowledge in practical situation.

The detailed syllabus has been incorporated with the course objective of each paper. The course folder of each paper (for every semester) covers a general overview, course and evaluation pattern of each course.

M.Tech. (S.E) - The programme has been designed to provide in depth training to the students in the area of s/w engineering. The main focus is to fill the gap between the actual practices and academic training.

The detailed syllabus has been incorporated with the course objective of each paper. The course folder of each paper (for every semester) covers a general overview, course and evaluation pattern of each course.

M.Sc. Cyber Security (Evening) – Alarming increase in rate of Cyber & Information Security threats is the motivation behind this course. This course enables the students to dive deep in the area of Cyber Security, including digital forensics & cyber law. The course produces digitally empowered manpower, which is one of the major focus of “Digital India Initiative” of Hon’ble Prime Minister Sri Narendra Modi.

The detailed syllabus has been incorporated with the course objective of each paper. The course folder of each paper (for every semester) covers a general overview, course and evaluation pattern of each course.