Online Education

1. Does all programs/courses were completed on time.	Yes
2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.	The members of the faculty were motivated to shift to online teaching and learning and were oriented to use online conferencing tools. The students were contacted using their email ids and phone numbers and concerned faculty formed WhatsApp groups and other social media tools. The study materials were shared in the form of lecture slides, PDF notes, audio narrations and video recordings. The video recordings were also uploaded on the university website for easy accessibility. A university wide portal was designed where faculty could share the study materials as and when needed by the students. The students were oriented to register in relevant courses available through different platforms such as, NPTEL, SWAYAM, MIT Courseware and Coursera. For engagement of students making them feel connected, regular online quizzes and competitions were also organised. The members of the faculty and students were provided access to e-resources subscribed by the Central Library through remote access. As far as assessment of learning outcomes is concerned various measures were adopted with the help of online platforms not only at the formative level (i.e, as and when the teaching-learning was going on) but also at the summative level i.e, the mid-term as well as end-term semester examinations were conducted through online as well as blended mode. For the students having dissertations in the final year and were facing difficulty in collecting field data were given option to submit reviews/papers/articles/essays etc. Regular tracking of the progress was undertaken under the aegis of Dean Academics about completion of syllabus at the university level and head of departments at the department level.
