Note

Based on the advisories/guidelines/directions issued by the Central/State Government, MHRD, UGC and in View of COVID-19 Pandemic; the University has framed following guidelines to be followed to compensate the loss of academic and research activities in the University.

1. The University will follow a 6-days week (9.15 AM to 6.00 PM) pattern to compensate the loss of academic and research activities for the remaining session of 2020-21.
2. Students of the final year post graduate course having dissertation at Thesis/Project as a component may utilize the period of semester break to finish their work.
3. Depending upon the course curriculum, the departments may explore the feasibility of conducting practical's through software/online tools or maintaining social distancing last week. Moreover express practical classes may be scheduled towards the end of the semester as per requirement. Departments wherein, Practical's/Wet Lab Experiments are not prescribed in the syllabus will continue with theory classes.
4. The admission to the Ph. D program in winter session will not be held and the same is declared as zero session, since the admission for the 2020-21 summer session are taking place in November 2020.
5. The teaching learning process will continue in on-line mode; students will be invited to the campus only after receiving appropriate directions from the University Grants Commission/Ministry of Home Affairs, GOI.
6. Any guidelines issued by the Ministry of Education/UGC will be applicable in future.
7. During the Pandemic Period:
   A) Alternative and simplified modes and methods of examinations may be adopted by the departments to complete the process in shorter period of time in compliance with CBCS requirements as prescribed by UGC from time to time. These may include MCQ/ OMR based examinations, Open Book Examination, Open Choices, assignment/ presentation-based assessments etc.
   B) Departments may also adopt efficient and innovative modes of examinations by reducing the time from 3 hr to 2 hr assigned to each examination, so that the process may be completed in multiple shifts and, at the same time, sanctity to evaluate the performance of a student is also maintained.
   C). The mode of examination for mid semester examination could be online assignment and the respective Head of the Department is authorized to take appropriate decision in this regard with due consultation with the faculty members; ensuring equal and fair opportunity to all students.

D). As far as the requirement of minimum percentage of attendance for the students /research scholars, the period of lockdown shall be counted as "deemed to be attended" for the purpose of calculating the final attendance. The Head of the Department is authorized to provide 20% relaxation in the minimum attendance requirement on case to case basis.

E). The question paper settings and evaluation of the answer books will be by internal mode only. The Head of the Departments are authorized to constitute Board of Examiners among faculty members in the school to moderate the question papers upto 35% of the original paper submitted by the internal examiner.

F). The viva voce examination for the practical examination may be conducted through online mode or for conducting the practical examination to maintain social distancing or by any other means as may deem fit. The examiner for the viva voce may be appointed from any other school/faculty or department within the University to maintain fair opportunity and competitive aptitude in the students. Dean of the school is authorized to appoint any such examiner from the panel of examiners submitted by the Head of The Department.

8. After opening of the university for students; every student will have to give undertaking with regard to his/her adherence to the various guidelines and principles of social distancing before resuming his/her classes and hostel. Failing which, student will be debarred from attending the classes and hostel accommodation. Any violation in the necessary advisories/guidelines/directions issued by the Central/State Government, MHRD or UGC from time to time to prevent the spread of COVID-19 will be taken on record with serious note leading to strict disciplinary action.

9. Research Scholars, Project Staff, Research Associates, JRF's, SRF's, Young Scientist, Women Scientist and Research Fellow (Collectively termed as Research Staff hereafter) can resume their research activities in gradual manner adhering to following guidelines:

A).Research Laboratories and research activities are to be resumed gradually after consultation with respective supervisor/mentor/Principle investigator (PI's) after the approval from head of the department.

B). The supervisor/mentor/PI's will have to take the lead and assess the laboratory space to allow the minimum number of students in the laboratory, so that social distancing norms can be followed without deviation.

C). It would be mandatory for all the research staff to wear mask and follow the guidelines issued by state government and central government.

D). To accommodate all students in the laboratory and to prevent the loss of time a weekly or alternate day roster should be prepared for working in the laboratory.

E). All research supervisors/mentors are required to get their labs sanitized daily.

F). No Hostel accommodation shall be given any student until suitable directives from relevant authorities is received.

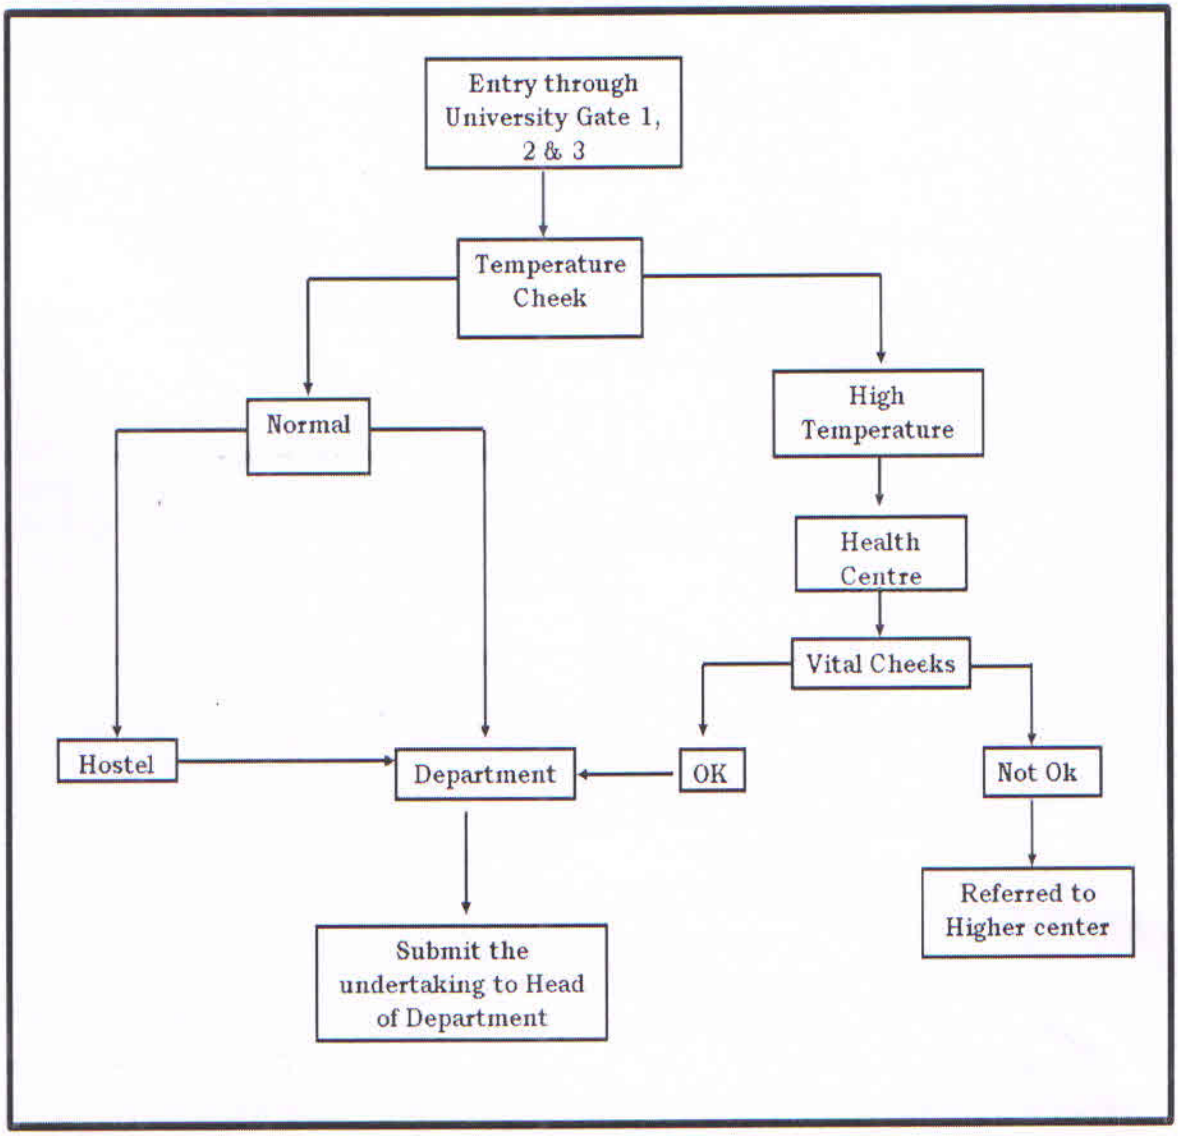

G). The M.Phil. or Ph.D. students, whose maximum period for submission of M. Phil./ Ph.D. Dissertation/ Thesis/Course work prescribed under the University PhD regulations is expired/ expiring during the Corona pandemic period will be allowed to submit their Dissertation/ Thesis, including completion of pending formalities, within six months from the date of expiry of regular prescribed period. The extension of six months is also considered for those students who are yet to submit their Dissertation/ Thesis. The above provisions are over above the existing rules.

H).While conducting the Viva-Voce Examination through Video Conferencing using electronic means, it will be ensured that the same would be open to be attended by members of the Departmental Research Committee, Research developmental Committee, all faculty members of the department, research scholars and other interested experts/ researchers, besides the Research Supervisor and Expert(s)/Examiner(s), as applicable.

I).Guidelines issued by UGC/Ministry of Education/State Govt. shall be applicable time to time.
